

January Teen Programs at the Henry Carter Hull Library

Meet and Greet with Nicole

Monday, January 6th from 3–4:30pm

We are excited to welcome Nicole Kent to our library team as our new teen and reference librarian! Drop-in the Teen Room anytime between 3:00-4:30 to meet Nicole, have a snack, and share your suggestions for tween and teen programming. Learn about all the fun programs Nicole will offer students in grades 7-12.

Wandering Minds: an ADHD club

Tuesdays from 3:30–5pm starting January 7th

Got ADHD? So do we! Spend time oversharing and infodumping about your latest hyperfixation while we interrupt each other and go off on tangents until we forget what we were talking about.

Snacks included!

Dungeons and Dragons

Wednesdays from 3–5pm starting January 8th

Embark on an epic journey of imagination and strategy!

Guided by an experienced Dungeon Master, players will create unique characters, solve puzzles, and engage in collaborative storytelling. Whether you're a seasoned adventurer or brand-new to the game, this program offers a welcoming space to all.

Please note that this is an ongoing, weekly campaign. Registration is required and once filled, will open again when we begin a new campaign.

Teen programs are open to teens aged 12–18.

Visit hchlibrary.org for more information.

Registration begins on January 20th.

Need a ride? Eliot Bus #3 and Morgan Bus #6 will stop at the library every day after school starting in January. Make sure you have a note for the bus.

Snack Attack: Quick Bites for Busy Days

Thursday, January 9th from 3:15–4:30pm

Calling all teen foodies! Learn how to whip up delicious, quick, and easy treats using minimal ingredients and tools. .

Whether you're new to the kitchen or just looking for inspiration, this program is a great way to build confidence, learn new skills, and impress your friends and family with your creations.

Registration is required.

Battles and Beyond: an Exploration of World War II

Thursday, January 23rd from 3–5 pm

Join the teen librarian as we explore World War II through movies and crafts. Each month we will watch a different movie and learn about life during the war by trying our hands at different crafts and activities. Please note that movies will be rated PG or PG-13.

Registration is required.

DIY Den

Fridays from 3–5pm starting January 10th

Welcome to the DIY Den, where imagination meets hands-on creation! This general craft program is designed for all skill levels who are eager to explore a variety of crafting techniques and projects. Whether you're a seasoned crafter or just starting out, our program offers something for everyone. Bring your own project and use our crafting supplies. Want to make something but don't know how? Just ask!
